

Tracy W. Drummond

drummond@nmsu.edu

Work: 575-533-6430

Cell: 575-313-1606

Education

Master of Science in Agriculture Economics, New Mexico State University, December 1993

Bachelor of Science in Animal Science, Texas A&M University, August 1991

Associates of Science, Clarendon College, May 1989

Areas of Expertise

Livestock Judging, Beef Cattle Management, Wildlife and Public Lands Policy

Cooperative Extension Work Experience

Catron County Program Director, New Mexico State University, Reserve, New Mexico, 1997 to Present
Organized and conducted county wide Cooperative Extension programming in agriculture, family and consumer sciences, 4H, and community and economic development. Most work has focused on beef cattle production and natural resource management as well as the 4H youth development program. Conducted applied research projects with extension specialist.

Otero County Program Director, New Mexico State University, Alamogordo New Mexico, 1995 to 1997,
Areas focused on included adult and 4H youth development livestock programs. I also was responsible for the management of the Otero County Fairgrounds.

Otero County Agriculture Agent, New Mexico State University, Alamogordo, New Mexico, 1993 to 1995,
Areas focused on includes all adult agriculture programs including urban and commercial horticulture and range and livestock management.

Associations and Committees

National Agriculture Agents Association 1993 to Present

New Mexico Agriculture Agents Association 1993 to Present, President 2009
(Achievement Award winner 2001) (Distinguished Service Award winner 2015)

New Mexico 4H Agents Association 1994 to Present, President 1998

New Mexico State University Faculty Senate 2010 to 2013

New Mexico Cattle Growers Association 1992-Present, Board of Directors 2013-present, Natural Resource Committee Vice Chair, Wildlife Committee Chair